

IRSC Nursing Program Expansion

firms in Florida with expertise in healthcare architecture

Builder: Proctor Construction—the firm responsible for the new Advanced Workforce Training Complex and multiple IRSC renovation projects.

About IRSC Pruitt Campus (Port St. Lucie)

fast-growing Port St. Lucie. The campus serves nearly is the William and Helen Thomas STEM Center, which ecology, chemistry, molecular science and botany. The Schreiber Conference Center is home

Renovations to Pruitt Campus buildings F and G will significantly expand learning environments for students enrolled in IRSC Nursing programs. The IRSC School of Nursing will relocate to the reimagined spaces on Pruitt

Expansion Statistics

50,521 sq. ft. at Pruitt Campus will be dedicated solely to the Renovations consist of two large classrooms for 120 students, two nursing labs seating 120 students, and two smaller nursing

The high-fidelity simulation center will include ten patient rooms with one home health aide suite. The center will offer

- Two Labor and Delivery rooms
- Two Pediatric Rooms
- Two Medical/Surgical Rooms
- Two Emergency Room/ICU Rooms
- One Procedural Room that flexes to a Behavioral Health
- One Home-Health Suite. This room sits on the outside of the center and will permit interprofessional simulated activities with the Paramedic and EMT students.
- Two nursing stations, a nursing call system, a nutrition